Here to serve and uplift our CT and MA members, since 1935. When it comes to financial institutions, you have plenty of options. But look below the surface and you'll find American Eagle FCU is different from other financial institutions. While we offer all of the products and services you need for your family or business, the difference is in our people. We're guided by a different set of standards, one that places members first because they're the owners and ultimate decision-makers. When you see what makes us who we are, your choice is clear.

Our community is designed for independent adults who are ready to leave behind the worrisome, time-consuming and physically challenging responsibilities of home ownership. We offer a community rich in services, amenities, activities and security. This maintenance-free and active lifestyle invites you to live each day by your design without the burden of everyday chores. Being a part of Manchester for decades, our senior leadership understands your values, know what's important to you, and do all they can to make sure the lifestyle, services, amenities and health care you want are

I am happy to help you! I'm a licensed Realtor since 1986 and specialize in all types of Real Estate including the sales and lease of single family homes, condominiums, multi-family properties, and commercial Real Estate. I am a full-time/full service Realtor who will assist you with your Real Estate transaction from the first time we meet until you sign the final paperwork at your closing.
